description of linguistic units in terms of what they are, and grammatical function is concerned with the description of what these linguistic units do. Note that we use capital letters at the beginning of function labels.

Form and function | Englicious.org

Traditionally, language instruction has focused on teaching grammar at the sentence level.

Sentence-level grammar refers to parts of speech, tenses, phrases, clauses, and word order. However, current teaching approaches recognize that it is important to include grammar in context.

TEACHING GRAMMAR FOR COMMUNICATIVE COMPETENCE

When teaching, it's best to mix language functions with grammar. Provide functional language as students are ready to learn. In the example above, using "I wish I could go to the party" will likely confuse lower level students. On the other hand, "I'd like to go to the party" or "I want to go to the party" is appropriate for lower level classes.

There are two different overall methods for teaching grammar, called traditional and functional grammar. Traditional grammar focuses on explicitly teaching students about structuring sentences and the different parts of speech, whereas functional grammar has a strong focus on the context of a text (Winch et al., 2010).
